Dancing in the Street

Yes it's party time. We're closing Broughton Road for an all day party on Sunday September 10. They'll be something for everyone. Badminton, Hockey, face Painting, Lucky Dip, a Barbecue, a Band, Musical Recital plus much much more... Will you help?

Consultation in the Street

Those who came to give their views in Hastings Road on Saturday June 10 saw the range of options. 150 people from the five roads gave their opinions on such issues as parking, one way streets, road closure and other HomeZone issues. All who came had the opportunity of putting their views direct to Ealing Council.

Ealing Councillors Peter Wicks and Martin Beecroft were also present to get the views of residents.

Area Committee

Ealing Council has recently re-organised and a meeting by a new Area Committee has asked to see more evidence of the proposed consultation before it is distributed to all residents of the Five Roads.

It has also asked that a wider group of people outside the five roads be consulted; in particular those living north of the railway in Argyle Rd.

They have also asked for a traffic impact survey of any proposed changes on Drayton Bridge Rd (which

Revised Timetable

As a consequence of this the planned consultation meeting for July 8 in the Conservative meeting rooms in Broughton Road have had to be cancelled. It is anticipated however that consultation will now take place in September.

All being well the contractors should still move in in January 2001.
