Help us hammer out the details

The Home Zone has been approved but how will it look in your street? What should the points look like? These are being decided now. Come along to your road's meeting, list help make sure that the detail reflects your input as well.

Designers have been briefed to review the consultation comments and draw up detailed plans reflecting the common view of the residents

A consensus needs to be reached in each street. However the council have to abide by statutory constraints including health and safety and traffic regulations.

Come and see the new detailed plan for your street and have your say at the consultation meetings during this week.

Following our meetings the plans and comments will be returned to Rachel Felton at the council to finalise the overall plan for this stage.

The Ealing Area Committee considered the results of the consultation questionnaire seeking the views West Ealing Residents on the Home Zone.

The committee, which comprises local Ealing councillors and officers, discussed the results with contributions from the public, and gave approval for the recommendation to introduce 60 parking where feasible, shared surface, planting, seating, decorative paving and a notice board. The precise locations of each to be decided.

The consultation document was delivered to a thousand households and businesses, 300 of them in the five roads. An overall 19% of houses replied (40% within the Home Zone) to the consultation, giving 76% (some of it qualified) support for the Home Zone.
